Important: The Public Records and commercially available data sources used on reports have errors. Data is sometimes entered poorly, processed incorrectly and is generally not free from defect. This system should not be relied upon as definitively accurate. Before relying on any data this system supplies, it should be independently verified. For Secretary of State documents, the following data is for information purposes only and is not an official record. Certified copies may be obtained from that individual state's Department of State. The criminal record data in this product or service may include records that have been expunged, sealed, or otherwise have become inaccessible to the public since the date on which the data was last updated or collected.

Accurint does not constitute a "consumer report" as that term is defined in the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 USC 1681 et seq. (FCRA). Accordingly, Accurint may not be used in whole or in part as a factor in determining eligibility for credit, insurance, employment or another permissible purpose under the FCRA.

Your DPPA Permissible Use: Court, Law Enforcement, or Government Agencies

Your GLBA Permissible Use: Law Enforcement Purposes

SERVICE and SCHOLARSHIP

by BARBARA SCHLEPPENBACH, PHD

They're not quite as distinctive as snowflakes, but the 1,021 Hawk undergrads represent a wide range of talents, interests, backgrounds, and dreams. Just getting to know and collaborate with one another is a rich element of their QU education.

That's a strand of the Franciscan DNA, of course, which values and promotes the flourishing of each individual. These students are also impossible to stereotype, and the opportunities they find on campus enable them to diversify their profiles even more.

QU honors students are a case in point. According to Dr. Daniel Strudwick, director of the program, they are 186 strong (growing from 100 in spring 2010 and 26 in 2006), representing every major field and creating a jambalaya of personalities. They are athletes and Greeks, cheerleaders, actors, tutors, and interns. What they have in common is a love of learning and a passion for challenge, raising the game of everyone in the classroom, including their teachers.

Also changing the face of campus are the scores of students who engage regularly and intensively in service activities. They, too, bring diverse profiles to their shared commitment to creating a better world, starting right here, right now.

For psychology major Jaclyn Mastroianni '14, the personal attention available in the honors program is an extension of what attracted her to QU. "I enjoy having smaller classrooms that let me have a one-on-one relationship with my professors," she comments. Mastroianni's high school schedule was studded with advanced placement classes, and continuing that level of challenge just came naturally.

Like her classmates, Mastroianni has a gift for balancing substantial commitments. Named to the National Soccer Coaches Association All-Region team this year, she devotes most of her non-academic time to soccer-related activities. She finds that honors events, including parties to celebrate accomplishments, do wonders to build camaraderie, and advanced projects push students to accomplish more than they previously imagined.

"My biggest challenge for honors was setting up a presentation on [my] research," Mastroianni recalls. "I was very nervous, and trying to find different activities for a class without having them get distracted or bored is very difficult."

Abimbola Osundairo '15 is another student athlete who has encountered the challenge that many Quincy University students face while trying to combine academic excellence with sports or other extracurricular activities.

"Being able to distribute my time efficiently so that I can be the best student and football player possible has made all the difference. This of course did not come so easily, but with the help of certain faculty members, and the encouragement I received, I have been able to put first things first.

"Not only does time management separate a student athlete from a student uninvolved in sports, it becomes more crucial when the student athlete is in the honors program. Time management becomes a vital tool and asset that one must acquire to succeed. It is definitely not easy; it takes hard work, commitment and persistence."

Pre-dentistry major Drew Miller '13 found extra inspiration when he was able to incorporate his planned career in dentistry into his Honors projects in biology. "Last year I gave a presentation on how hyperthyroidism leads to tooth defects," Miller explains, "and this year, I am doing a presentation on a mutation in tooth development."

Miller also maintains a busy schedule beyond the classroom, but making time to help others is a must. "I am a part of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity where we do a lot of service," he says. "My favorite activity would have to be the wheelchair basketball tournament we host every year for the Center for Independent Living in west central Illinois."

Fellow Delt and honors student Jay Austin '15 calls his first-year honors project "eye-opening." Under the guidance of his theology professor, Austin attended services of various Western religions, including Islam, Judaism, and Catholicism. The experience proved to be his favorite in Honors so far. "I could go on for hours about the opportunities afforded to me by the university!" Austin states. "I'm the Student Assistant for the baseball team, an Admissions Ambassador, the co-founder of the First Year Leadership Experience [FYLE], and an active member within Big Brothers Big Sisters." Like all honors students, he finds the perks, such as priority registration, to be beneficial, and he knows that his participation will make his résumé stand out. However, he keeps his eyes on the larger prize.

"[The purpose of honors] is not to load certain students down with extra work; it is not so that we can wear a special cord when we walk at graduation; and it is absolutely not something meant to heighten our pride," Austin says. "The purpose of the program is to stretch our intellect, solidify our values, and strengthen our resolve."

First-year student Megan Ward '17 couldn't agree more. A Presidential Scholar, Ward expressed her enthusiasm for honors and for her QU experience as a student speaker during this year's competition. "It made me feel so great just knowing I could relieve a little of their nervousness by providing some advice and a little humor," she remembers. A pre-med major, Ward is Circle K secretary, a student senate delegate, a member of FYLE, an Impact mentor, a tutor, and a member of the RAP (summer registration) and orientation teams.

"I love QU so much and I would never have chosen to go anywhere else," Ward says. "It has by far been the best decision of my life. I have met so many new friends, learned a lot about myself, and have had some amazing professors, and I'm only a freshman."

One special part of the QU experience that Ward cherishes is the ongoing opportunity to serve others. In 2013, more than fifty student participants logged over 1000 hours of service on the New Orleans mission trip alone, making this spring break project the most ambitious ever undertaken. Although this particular trip was singularly inspiring, those who took part were not newcomers to service—nor to a full slate of campus activities. Nontraditional student Greg Carter '15 agrees that "few other things that I have done in my life have left me as satisfied that I did something right as my service hours in New Orleans."

Carter, who aspires to teach history at the secondary level, sees service as "a good chance to learn something no classroom can ever teach, which is giving to others." An officer of student senate and an editor for the campus newspaper, Carter also belongs to a number of fraternal organizations and writes for The Local Q, an online venture. He hopes to compile 100 hours of service before he finishes his QU career, and he has a great start.

He calls the New Orleans trip "the most moving and satisfying" of his service activities. "We all had good times, learned a lifetime's worth of experience, and lived the QU mission statement. I haven't laughed as much in two years

"I love QU so much and I would never have chosen to go anywhere else. It has by far been the best decision of my life."

"Anthem" Season 5
Ep. 14

INTELLIGENCE INVESTIGATES THE DEATH OF A COLLEGE ATHLETE KILLED AFTER KNEELING IN PROTEST. When a basketball star is found murdered after an anti-police rally, Intelligence navigates a politically charged environment to track down the killer. To complicate matters further, Woods' (guest star Mykelti Williamson) daughter Brianna (guest star Alexa Adderley) is tangled up in the case. Starring Jason Beghe, Jon Seda, Jesse Lee Soffer, Patrick John Flueger, Elias Koteas, Marina Squerciati, LaRoyce Hawkins, Amy Morton and Tracy Spiridakos. Also guest starring Barton Fitzpatrick, Johnny Ray Gill and Ola Osundairo. CHICAGO P.D. Season 5 Episode 14 Photos Anthem

"Chicago P.D." is a riveting police drama about the men and women of the Chicago Police Department's elite Intelligence Unit, combatting the city's most heinous offenses – organized crime, drug trafficking, high-profile murders and beyond.

Det. Sgt. Hank Voight (Jason Beghe) and his intelligence team have always considered rules to be guidelines more than actual laws. Their goal has always been to protect their great city and they have used unique ways to help bring criminals to justice. Now it's a new day and age in Chicago. Police are under siege and under a microscope – everyone from the federal government to politicians and citizens in their own city are watching. The intelligence team will feel the pressure, and their form of justice will be questioned and challenged.

" Simon Casting is an absolute must for production in Chicago. Claire and her team consistently went above and beyond in helping us populate the landscape of "Boss" with an amazing pool of local actors. Babes 'N Beaus Chicago represents talent that reflects the diversity of Chicago and our Nation. Our models and talent are dependable and offer a wide range of acting and modeling experiences. BNB Chicago is a full service agency representing children, teens, adults and seniors for Commercials, Television, Film, Voiceovers, Industrials, Music Videos and Web & Print advertising.

We began our journey into the entertainment business first as parents of a model. Our 16 year old daughter heard a radio announcement for an upcoming modeling convention. Skeptical at first, we grudgingly agreed to pay the fee and attend the event. She received four callbacks, two from Japan. Thinking that this would go no further, we were shocked when we received a call asking us to be in Osaka, Japan in one month. We decided to accept the opportunity and her life and ours was changed!

Nadia returned to Japan fourteen times, and this led to additional work in New York, Miami, Chicago, Los Angeles and Hong Kong. We opened BNB Chicago and have been in our present location since 2003.

INVESTIGATION:

In continuance with the above aggravated battery investigation, on 06-Jun-2011, R/D was contacted by victim [REDACTED] who related that he has heard from people at Lake View High School that the subject who was in custody and subsequently released w/o charging [REDACTED] has [REDACTED] who was involved in his stabbing. R/D then performed a computer search and said query resulted in Olabinjo OSUNDAIRO IR # [REDACTED] M/1/19. R/D then constructed a photo spread that included a photo of Olabinjo OSUNDAIRO. On 07-Jun-2011, victim [REDACTED] viewed said photo spread and identified Olabinjo OSUNDAIRO (IR# [REDACTED]) as being involved in his beating/stabbing on 06-May-2011.

On 10-Jun-2011, R/D procured investigative alert #299969897 against Olabinjo OSUNDAIRO.

On 20-Jun-2011 at 1300 hours, Olabinjo OSUNDAIRO turned himself into Beat 5753 at 2452 W. Belmont. OSUNDAIRO was processed accordingly and held for R/D. On 21-Jun-2011 at 1710 hours, OSUNDAIRO was advised his rights per Miranda by Det. SKELLY in the presence of Det. MARSZALEC. OSUNDAIRO related that he understood said rights and stated, "I want to remain silent and I want my attorney." The interview was then terminated.

At 1935 hours R/D conducted physical lineups' which included Olabinjo OSUNDAIRO. Victim [REDACTED] viewed said lineup and positively identified Olabinjo OSUNDAIRO as the person who confronted him at 4226 N. Ashland Avenue on 06-May-2010. OSUNDAIRO told the victim to "throw down the crown" to which the victim refused. OSUNDAIRO then grabbed the victim, picked him up and shoved him through an unlocked metal gate and into an enclosed front yard. OSUNDAIRO then beat the victim and held him down while a co-offender stabbed him with a knife 10 times about his torso, arm and leg.

Witness [REDACTED] viewed said lineup and positively identified Olabinjo OSUNDAIRO as the person he saw get into the victim face and push him in the chest through an unlocked metal gate, into an enclosed front yard and then out of his view.

Witness [REDACTED] viewed said lineup but did make identification. (See separate lineup report)

R/D contacted Felony Review and ASA Liz DIBLER responded to Area 3. Upon her arrival, DIBLER reviewed available reports and interviewed victim [REDACTED] and witness [REDACTED]. ASA DIBLER then approved (1) count of aggravated battery/great bodily harm against Olabinjo OSUNDAIRO IR# [REDACTED]. Based on the above stated facts, R/D requests that this case be CLEARED OPEN (ARREST AND PROSECUTION).
